

3rd March 1970

Friendly v. R.A.F. (home)

Offside decider?

Wycombe Wanderers 0,
R.A.F. 1

KEN ORAM the dangerous Oxford City centre forward, scored what many considered an "offside" deciding goal against Wycombe Wanderers in Tuesday night's floodlight friendly at Loakes Park.

Ironically, Wycombe's Dave Thomas had had a goal disallowed in the first few minutes, and it became just another one of those frustrating matches.

Tony Horseman hit a post and a bar in the course of the 90 minutes, while the R.A.F.'s strong arm tactics, particularly early in the game, took their toll on the Wanderers side.

Dave Thomas suffered a badly twisted knee and was replaced by substitute Geoff Anthony, while Ian Rundle played throughout the second half with a pulled hamstring, also in his knee.

Wycombe Wanderers: K. O'Brien; I. Rundle, C. Gale; K. Stephenson, V. Faulkner, J. Lailey; A. Horseman, B. Baker, K. Searle, D. Thomas (sub. G. Anthony), J. Hutchinson.